ALERT!!! Bunker Hill Residents

Dear Residents,

Please note the following request from the Memorial Villages Police Department:

Please notify the Memorial Villages Police Dept. immediately if you have any information or have experienced a black male coming to your door asking for a "Mr. Fargo," or if anybody has come to the residence in the past asking for "Mr. Fargo."

In addition, if any resident has had contact with this individual and has video cameras at their residence, please contact the police department so the video footage can be reviewed.

Pct. 5 Constables have possibly identified a suspect in some of their burglaries of residences that have occurred in their area. MVPD are working closely with them and HPD to try and locate and question this suspect.

Right now there is no release of his name, but this has been his method of operation for some time. He will knock on the front door and when somebody answers the door he will ask for "Mr. Fargo."

Again, If any resident has been or is contacted by this person, please contact the Memorial Villages Police Department immediately.
